

INTERNATIONAL ONSHORE STUDENT REFUND POLICY

Purpose

AIB is committed to the fair and transparent application of fees and charges, including the processing of refunds. International Onshore Students are provided with details of all fees and charges and a copy of the refund policy prior to enrolment. This policy outlines the circumstances in which an International Onshore Student may receive a full or partial refund of their study fees.

Scope

This policy applies to all AIB International Onshore Students who are studying on a visa at the Adelaide campus. Refunds may be provided to International Onshore Students, their parents or any other person(s) who/which have/has paid the course fee on behalf of a student.

Definitions

Unless otherwise defined in this document, all capitalised terms are defined in the glossary.

Application fee – an administration fee charged for processing enrolment applications – non-refundable, except where AIB has cancelled a course and as applicable.

Study – a higher education accredited course as prescribed by the enrolment agreement.

Course-related fees - Includes all course money as defined by Section 7 of the ESOS Act and all optional fees or charges.

Course money - As defined by Section 7 of the ESOS Act, the money that AIB receives, directly or indirectly, from an International Onshore Student or intending International Onshore Student; or another person who pays the money on behalf of an International Onshore Student or intending International Onshore Student, for a course that AIB is providing, or offering to provide, to the International Onshore Student. This includes tuition fees, any amount received by AIB for Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC), and any other amount that the International Onshore Student had to pay to AIB in order to undertake the course.

Provider - An institution or other body or person in Australia that provides or seeks to provide CRICOS registered courses to International Onshore Students as defined by the ESOS Act under “Overseas Students”.

Provider default - Where the registered provider fails to provide a course or ceases to provide a course to an International Onshore Student in accordance with Section 27(146)A of the ESOS Act.

Student default - Where an International Onshore Student does not start a course or withdraws from a course as defined in Section 27(247A) of the ESOS Act.

Student visa - An authorisation permitting people who are not Australian citizens or permanent residents to come to Australia for the primary purpose of studying in Australia as defined by the Migration Act 1958.

Study period - A discrete period of study within a course, namely term, semester, trimester, short course of similar or lesser duration, or as otherwise defined by the registered provider as long as that period does not exceed six months.

Tuition fee – the fee for the delivery of the Course training and assessment. The tuition fee does not include re-examination fees, re-marking fees, or any other type of fees. The dates referred to in the refund table are the dates for the tutorials as set out in AIB’s schedule (as amended by AIB from time to time) for tutorials in the Course that the student is applying for, irrespective of whether the student has attended those tutorials.

Details

1. Full Refund

- 1.1. Any approved full refund of fees payable to an International Onshore Student will include the refund of tuition fees and Overseas Student Health Cover, (if applicable), which are required to be paid in advance.
- 1.2. Where AIB cancels a course due to provider default, AIB will make every effort to reschedule the course and offer to place the student in an alternative course. The student is not obliged to accept alternative offers and may seek a full refund of the total study fee including the application fee.

2. Refunds when student's account is in credit balance - Graduating Students

- 2.1. If a student has a credit balance on their AIB account when they graduate, that credit balance will be automatically refunded by AIB in full, and does not require application by the student.

3. Refunds for Continuing Students

- 3.1. If AIB has informed the student that they are eligible for a refund, they must complete a Student Course Refund Application form and submit it to the Research Coordinator for the attention of the Chief Financial Officer, accompanied by a written notice of withdrawal from the course.

4. Refund Table

- 4.1. This table sets out AIB’s policy on refunds of tuition fee deposits or tuition fees paid by International Onshore Students and including instances of students who do not go on to successfully complete their studies.

| (i) | In the event the student abandons study without formally cancelling their enrolment directly with AIB. Note: In the case of study abandonment, the student will be liable for all fees until the cancellation process is complete. | No refund payable. |
| (j) | In the event the student visa is cancelled after commencement of studies by the Department of Home Affairs for any reason. | No refund payable. |
| (k) | In the event the student changes their visa status (e.g. receives permanent residency status) during their study period. Note: Where a student changes their visa status (e.g. changes education sector) and requires a new visa to be issued, the student is required to bear any and all costs associated with the visa inclusive of medical tests. | No refund payable. |

Note 1: Nothing removes the right of the student to take further action under relevant Australian consumer protection law and to pursue such legal remedies the student may have under such laws.

Note 2: AIB will invoice the student for no more than 50% of the total tuition fees before they commence the course, if the total course duration is more than 24 weeks). However, where a voluntary payment is in excess of the invoiced 50%, refunds will be as per the payment received.

Note 3: In any cases relating to Provider or Student Default, refer to the AIB International Students - Provider & Student Default & Role in Placement Process Internal Procedure.

- 4.3. AIB reserves the right to withhold granting the study Parchment, Statement of Attainment and Academic Transcript attained by the student if any student fees remain outstanding.
- 4.4. Information in relation to fees and refunds is found on the AIB website <http://www.aib.edu.au/> and in the International Onshore Student Application form and Student Acceptance Agreement.

5. Refund Payments

- 5.1. All requests for refund must be made in writing to the attention of AIB's Chief Financial Officer, accompanied by a written notice of withdrawal from the course. All refunds are paid by cheque or paid into the student's nominated bank account in Australian dollars (AUD).
- 5.2. The refund will be made payable to the student, no more than four (4) weeks after receiving a written claim for refund (less any applicable bank administrative charges properly paid/payable). This will occur, unless AIB receives written advice from the student to the contrary or they are supported by a recognised third party sponsor and that sponsor is entitled to the refund [ESOS Act, s.27(2)].

6. Special Circumstances Refunds

- 6.1. Where special circumstances result in the student being unable to academically perform and successfully attend and/or complete their studies, the International Onshore Student may decide to apply for a Special Circumstances Refund. Special circumstances may also be referred to as compassionate and extenuating circumstances, as determined by AIB. If the student can demonstrate that there are valid special circumstances the student may apply for the refund of pre-paid tuition fees.

Note: withdrawal or non-completion of the course may have implications for the student's visa.

7. Special Circumstances

- 7.1. AIB deems that special circumstances apply where the circumstances:
 - (a) are beyond the student's control and not due to their action or inaction, and
 - (b) do not occur, or do not make their full impact on the student known, until on or after the commencement of the Course, and
 - (c) make it impracticable for the student to meet the attendance and/or assessment requirements of the study during the study period in which the student was enrolled.
- 7.2. Reasons for the withdrawal or non-completion may include:
 - (a) The recent death of a close family member (parent, guardian, sibling, spouse, child)
 - (b) Partial or total incapacitation
 - (c) Significant medical or personal circumstances.
- 7.3. In applying for Special Circumstances, the International Onshore Student will be required to:
 - (a) complete the Special Circumstances Refund Application form.
 - (b) lodge the application with the Research Coordinator within twelve (12) months of the date of formal withdrawal from the study. Where formal withdrawal was not required, the application must be lodged within 12 months of the last day of the study period in which they were enrolled.

- (c) ensure that appropriate and adequate independent supporting documentation is lodged with the Research Coordinator no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the initial lodgement.

7.4. Special Circumstances Outcome:

- (a) The student will be sent a letter or email acknowledging receipt of the Special Circumstances Refund form and related information within five (5) working days; and
- (b) The Chief Financial Officer within twenty (20) calendar days of receipt of the application, will provide written notification of his or her decision which will include a statement of the reasons for the decision; information on their right to have the decision reviewed; and a brief outline of the review process.
- (c) If the application is successful, the Chief Financial Officer will arrange for the refund.

8. Grievances about Refund Decisions

8.1. More information in relation to the Academic and Non-Academic Grievance Handling Policy and processes can be found on the AIB website and in the International Onshore Student Application form and Student Acceptance Agreement.

8.2. International Onshore Students may raise grievances about refund decisions under this policy.

9. Refund Review

9.1. If the student's refund request is not successful and they are not satisfied with the reasons provided by the Chief Financial Officer, they may request in writing that the decision be reviewed.

9.2. The request must be submitted within twenty (20) calendar days of the notification of the outcome of their application.

9.3. The request must contain information and/or documentation additional to that included in the original application, and directly address the reasons provided for the Chief Financial Officer's decision.

9.4. A review officer will be nominated by AIB to manage their request and the review process.

10. Appeal

10.1. If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of this review, they may consider lodging a complaint in accord with the AIB Academic and Non-Academic Grievance Handling Policy. Once a formal complaint or appeal has been lodged with an external agent, the AIB process ceases.

10.2. External appeals are as per the process outlined in the AIB Academic and Non-Academic Grievance Handling Policy
